

one 50 per cent, about 60 per cent, and a day or 10 percent and heavily docked. They receive under their contract 65 cents a yard for the cloth, and is the same which may have always sold for 50 cents. The Soldier also says a contract was made with Seward & Woodward, Esq., for the manufacture of the cloth, at not a fair price—but after Mr. Woodward had commenced fulfilling his part of the contract he received no further base in authority, that arrangement having been entered into with Morris & Co., by which the cloth could be claimed at a much lower price, and that it is believed by many that the Quarter Master General was instrumental in bringing about the arrangement, receiving for his influence a generous share of the profits. The above-named charge we trust will be investigated. It may be attempted to speculate initially in State contracts should meet with prompt release, and if not true it is due to the Quarter Master to seek an investigation.—Daily Press.

Aodore Moore, a member of the Illinois Company, accidentally shot a young man of the same Company, named Adams. It is said Adams will recover, but Moore lies in a dangerous condition from the effects of the explosion he brought on himself by running in the agony of his feelings at the accident, three miles from a Doctor for Moore. It was said a touching incident.

Battle at Philippopolis—The Rebels Whipped.

Two columns of federal troops from Gen. McCall's army—one commanded by Col. Kelley, composed of Virginia volunteers, and the other by Col Crittenden of Indiana volunteers—left Gaithersburg early Sunday evening. After marching the entire night, about 20 miles through a drenching rain, they surprised a camp of rebels 2000 strong at Philippopolis, Va., the shire town of Barboursville, and routed them killing 15, and capturing a large amount of arms, horses, ammunition, provisions and camp equipage. The surprise was complete, and at the latest advices the federal troops were in hot pursuit of the rebels, and probably more prisoners would be taken. Col. Kelley was mortally wounded and has since died. Several others of the federal troops were slightly wounded.

Battle at Fredericksburg—The Rebels Whipped.

At Federal Court House, early Saturday morning, cavalry company B of the 2d regt., 47 privates, under Lieut. Tompkins, and second Lieut. Gordon, accompanied by Quartermaster Fearing, assistant Quartermaster Carey, and Adjutant Frank of the New York 5th regiment, were reconnoitering within 100 yards of Federal Court House, on the Williamsport road when they were fired upon by rebels.

They took one prisoner and the other escaped. The cavalry then advanced to the village from the south side, and were fired on from the houses. Hostilities kept up, and a sharp engagement ensued.

The men firing was instantly shot down. The cavalry then charged down through the occupied street, and were fired upon from many houses and by platoons from plant houses. Having thus passed to the rear of the village, they wheeled instantly and charged back. They were then met by two detachments of secession troops with bayonets. Turning they cut through a dense forest in the rear, and left the village, bringing five prisoners, and killing throughout the engagement 27 men. Two cavalry soldiers were shot and two are missing. Assistant Quartermaster Carey was hit in the foot. Col. Tompkins had two horses shot under him, the last falling on his cap, dismaying it slightly. The wounded have been conveyed to the hospital, and are properly cared for by surgeons.

Battle at Fredericksburg—The Rebels Whipped.

On Saturday night, word came into the camp of the New York 28th regiment, that two regiments missing from Company B, which made the sally on Saturday morning, had captured by the rebels and were to be hung Saturday morning. Companies B and C, however, were sent to the Court House, and having come to the precise location of their comrades, they made a dash through the village, cut out their comrades, and brought them in in time to attempt to the camp.

Battle at Arlington Mills.

On Friday night, shortly before twelve o'clock, a skirmish took place at Arlington Mills. Brown's Zouaves had just arrived by a New England company, and had posted themselves, when the Virginians advanced and captured a number of them.

On Saturday morning, the rebels were captured by the rebels and were to be hung Saturday morning. Companies B and C, however, were sent to the Court House, and having come to the precise location of their comrades, they made a dash through the village, cut out their comrades, and brought them in in time to attempt to the camp.

Jeff Davis, and suite, arrived at Richmond on Wednesday, accompanied by Lomax and Wagstaff. The "president" was too much to make much of a speech to the crowd who met him at the depot and at the State House, where he has his head-quarters. But Wiggin was making as usual with his speeches. The Reunion is a very desperate, and anxious to let loose on the advancing pickets of the secessionists.
